

I am against banks and other businesses being able to call people on the no-call list. Isn't that what the law was created for in the first place? Please reconsider your action to allow this type of communication. You will be affected as well as the rest of us. Thank you, Jerry L. Simpson